ATTRACTIVE TRIFLES.

Pretty Hair Ornaments—Modish Accessories—Velvet Costumes.

Very pretty are the hair ornaments of the moment, and they are getting almost as high as the hats. Great tufts of ostrich feathers and upstanding jeweled aigrets are favorite ornaments at present. Those who cannot afford jewels are wearing silver and gold sequined bows and silvered ostriches. The single rose of deep, glorious red for preference is really more effective, for with the high head-dressing it is a simple matter to adjust it becomingly.

The fur stole has a decided rival in the neck piece of marabou. The feather bon and muff are also among the fashionable girl's accessories. Clipped marabou is generally used and is not as perishable as one would think. A bon in shaded gray feathers, with a large soft muff to match, gives a smart finishing touch to a gray costume.

Panne costumes for afternoon wear are very much in favor just now. Generally speaking, the skirts are characterized by plainness, while the bodices are somewhat elaborate. A striking model was lately shown made with high lace collar cut in one with the yoke, on which the velvet corsage appeared to be buttoned by means of a series of small tabs.

The mushroom shaped hat seen in the cut is a revived fashion of early Victorian days. It is carried out in white chip. A puffing of green silk is about the crown, and a large plait rose holds in position a panache of white ostrich feathers.

Roman Fortifications.

In the second century a formidable line of fortifications was constructed by the Roman emperors from the upper Danube to the upper Rhine to keep out the Germans.

Fought With Bows and Arrows.

The last European battle in which bows and arrows were used was that of Lepsic, in October, 1813, when the French were defeated by the allies. The Russians brought into the field some Tartars whose only weapons were bows and arrows, and a French general was wounded by an arrow in the battle.

CHELSEA.

Stanley C. Wilson was in Randolph Monday on legal business.

Fred Felson and wife of Williams-town spent Sunday with the Misses Andrews.

J. K. Darling is ill with a severe cold and confined to his bed for the past two days.

Charles Farr of East Brookfield and J. B. Adams of Randolph Center were in town Monday buying ashes.

Will Cook, clerk in Col. H. O. Bixby's store, left this morning for Providence, R. I., to spend a week's vacation.

Norman B. Davenport has purchased the Elisha Mattoon place on the Vershire road, and will take possession April first. Consideration $225.

Mrs. West of Tunbridge, whose son, Charles L. West, was confined in jail here for several weeks and finally taken to the insane asylum at Waterbury a short time ago, died Monday morning.

Charles D. Boardway who has been assisting in Ordway Holmes & Co.'s store during M. Holmes' absence of three weeks, left for Claremont, N. H., Monday morning to visit his brother and other relatives.

In view of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hatch and son are to leave town next week to take up their residence in Milford, N. H., a farewell reception will be tendered them in the town hall Friday evening, Feb. 23rd, at 8 o'clock. The invitation is general and it is hoped that their many friends may receive notice of this opportunity to meet them before they leave town.

Stockades.

In "The Voyages of Captain Cook" there is a statement to the effect that in New Zealand the towns of the natives were all protected by stockades. In some cases these were formed of double or triple rows of trees, the spaces between being latticed with wickerwork and filled with earth.

Offa's Dike.

Offa's dike was a defensive wall built by the Romans against the Welsh. It was an earthen fortification, 113 miles long, and entirely cut off Wales from England.

THE SHAVER'S OPPORTUNITY

Bargain opportunities come the men's way once in a while—at least they do at our store.

For the next ten days, if the goods last, we offer an unusual bargain to men—a splendid Razor, cake of Soap, Brush and Mug all for less than price of Razor—$1.00.

An inspection of these goods will prove to you what a genuine bargain we are offering. Come in and look them over. We shall not urge you to buy, but they are bound to sell without that effort.

Did you ever think that there is just as much difference in Lard as there is in Butter? That to make good Lard it is just as essential to have everything sweet and clean as to make good Butter? Our Lard is rendered by steam in closed kettles. No smoke or ashes near it. Only fresh Pig Pork is used. After the Lard is rendered we have plenty of steam to sterilize and clean everything. It's impossible to make Lard like ours in the old way, with an open kettle in an outbuilding.
